Characters Chasity Chasity is a young woman who has endured years of mistreatment and bullying at the hands of the popular werewolf alpha triplets. Her dedication to working tirelessly stems from the need to repay her parents' gambling and drug-related debts, which led the triplets to cruelly nickname her ChaRity. Chasity's character is intricately developed, characterized by her striking and Goldilocks-like appearance, in contrast to her modest background. She has always been a target for bullying and teasing within the pack because of her upbringing and appearance, particularly at the hands of these three prominent alpha males. Little does she know that one fateful day she will discover that these very same alpha males are her destined mates. Alex Thorn Among the triplets and Chasity's mates, Alex stands out as the eldest and the most dominant of the trio. His assertive demeanor often makes him the most aggressive towards Chasity, yet beneath this exterior, he carries a profound sense of guilt for the way he has mistreated her in the past. Felix Thorn Felix, the second child among the triplets and another of Chasity's mates, possesses a more easy-going nature compared to his brothers. He frequently makes efforts to compensate for the way they've treated Chasity in the past by showering her with kindness and understanding. Calix Thorn Calix, the youngest triplet and also Chasity's mate, is considered the most delicate and kindhearted among the three brothers. He has always felt a unique connection with Chasity and is the first to recognize her as their fated mate. Hot Chapters Chapter 9 Chasity experiences a sudden and distressing memory while she's with Alex, triggering a strong emotional reaction and leading her to abruptly leave the house during what was meant to be a date. Alex is understandably worried and does his best to console her, but Chasity's response to the memory is quite intense. While she's outside, Felix comes across her, and in a mix of anger and concern, he scoops her up and rushes her back inside. Chapter 12 A haunting flashback that Chasity experiences occurs as she awakens on Christmas morning with the triplets by her side. This traumatic memory harks back to a time when she was just 13 years old, and Felix and Alex, aged 16 and 13, respectively, punished her for oversleeping on Christmas and failing to prepare breakfast. In this distressing memory, Felix subjected her to the brutal punishment of being left outside in the freezing cold snow, with Alex concurring with the decision. It was Calix who secretly came to her aid, helping her escape further humiliation. Chapter 20 Calix opens up to Chasity and reveals a complex family history. He confides that his mother, the Luna, harbors a strong aversion toward Chasity, which traces back to a longstanding feud between Chasity's mother and Calix's stepbrother's mate. Calix explains that his mother had always despised his stepbrother's mate, believing her to be a negative influence. Chasity's parents had taken her in, not only to repay debts but also to provide cover for the fact that Chasity's mother and Calix's stepbrother were estranged stepsiblings.
