Please wait. This won't take long. +1 but im telling u this never gon happen since ur playing pika Regards, -xRocke6161 i like playing solo bedwars. Ye that's true -1 How is this going to be implemented? There'll be 100's of players wanting to do this and we can't have 100 games going on at once Do parties in Skywars/Bedwars Solo or in Practice if you want to 1v1. People with ranks must be allowed to start the private game not all the people. Getting parties on bedwars will not let you be on the same team so they should bring back the ability to pick teams if private games is not implemented. We can do queues. In private games Pika-netowork-Youtuber - JustRandomNoob People with ranks must be allowed to start the private game not all the people. Already have an issue with that, that's not really a good system no people are literally gonna do that to gain xp and coins for free which is unfair so stats should not count if private games existed. Well that's another problem they'd have to remove stats for those games. As you can see this is a very complicated idea and the while its not great being in party in solo bedwars means you have a chance of 1v1ing your friend. Especially if you tell each other your island so you know what to aim for.
