13 November, 20 217 Minutes of Reading Teacher's Test Simulation with 1,000 pedagogical cases, student knowledge, learning theories, learning theo Minutes of Read Throughout the day many situations generate anger. But actually, getting angry isn't a bad thing. That's right, as long as it's 23 November, 20 213 Minutes of Reading It's essential to recognize that the best learning takes place in an affectionate atmosphere, says the author, quoting Goleman, When we dedicate our lives to teaching and especially to children, we have to be aware that we are the ones who intervene directly in the cognitive process of children, we are the first face they see before a world different from their first pillars of confidence and directly influence the construction of children. it is understood that the materials we use in class are important for the cognitive construction of the student and more important when we refer to a range of ages between 6-12 years of age, that is, that we are present in the life of the child at two very important stages: childhood and childhood. Beginning in his teens. When teaching is taken for something very simple there are usually problems in the class, so much so that it can directly affect the emotions of the child. When the teacher does not prepare the class based on sensory archetypes, we can affect the child's life, both in the way he sees life and in the way he or she is forced to follow a single learning style. The way we perceive the world is according to our senses, every time a child picks up some kind of information they will do it according to how they feel it, it can be processed based on the 5 Of man; Touch, OAfAdo, taste, view and smell, in this way we can modify the way you see life. What does this have to do with teaching and the use of good class materials? The relationship that exists is based on that when the children are between the age of 6-12 years, they are fÅfÅ; to program that even the same adults. That's why when a child is told something, that will be marked for all life including to the ages of each, coupled with good professional training would make those children You remember you for a lifetime. Because you were an important part in molding them for the broad world that we call society. Lainites presents professionals and demon of infantile education, a wide range of solutions to meet the cognitive needs of children, the first sample that parents have about A good education are the study materials, the Lainite exercise booklets present to the teacher at a notebooks since 1st. Up to 6th. Degree, covering the first years of education in the child. Currently there are many support materials for classes, which can help provide the teacher to dictate his class, improving or simply serving as support. For the case of LAINITAS it offers the market a hound of didact resources, concepts and exercises go according to the current situation, more and more children are exposed In more information is good or bad, this is due to the unavailability of digital instruments such as computers, laptops, tablets and cell phones, which allow you to access in less than a second to all the information in the world; With the help of a good material like the ones offered by Lanitas, your classes would change the boring form to the fun and difficult as possible. Importance of class material one day a teacher who does not have good teaching material is being forgotten, having a good school library will allow you to build minds that in the future will bring about changes in the world. Some good resources will help you in the training of professionals in addition to the recognition of being the one who trained them. The importance of good didactic material for the planning of professionals in addition to the recognition of being the one who trained them. with a good foundation from primary school to their second stage, secondary school, it will be much easier to achieve education. Even if children do not believe it are the achievements of teachers and a motivated teacher will create professionals of height. Lainitas exercise booklets, increasingly evolving to adapt to the new concerns of children in addition to meeting the goals of parents, both emotionally and academically. Naturally, you can make sure that those children will be great minds of the future. Counting from educational images to complementary exercises that will help improve your work with teachers. Thanks to publishers like Lainitas who have taken care to adapt their books to the new needs of children of the 21st century, we go further. We're talking about the generation that was born and grew up with technology, so that information can't be broken down or wrong, these children are in constant contact with it from all over the world.
