Geometry Dash 2.111 APK is one of the best favorite games, which is equipped with some impressive features that a person of any age can become dependent on it quickly. Officially the game was launched in 2013 for the Android platform. For a huge positive approach from its users, developers have added some elements more for the game in the latest version. The most recent version of the game is now available for Android. In short, you donate t have to bring a smartphone to enjoy the game. Here, this article is on how free download and install the Lite APK Geometry Dash for Android.Geometry Dash Light is an addictive action game that affects the direction of the famous Flappy Bird flight game. Take part in the game and check the seamless jump box in a world full of stones with very exciting game Phoarding structure of the game is very simple, the reality of all the graphic elements such as triangles, squares, rhombuses, etc., and the Game world consists of these images, even if the structure is simple, the hierarchy is not simple. This game is a horizontal 2D version. To highlight the characteristics of a network, it is necessary to go through its refined design, ie, developers cliently proposed each color a different color to give an intuitive display, so that players are more likely to capture the network. The answer is generated. The game is the most magical thing than the rhythm of music and the rhythm of the player are almost in harmony if you are sensitive to music, you can close your eyes, the rhythm can avoid all the problems, a long time interesting.Each you touch The screen, the coil jumps in addition to other additional actions. In the main menu interface, you can select the role of controls and system settings. Enter the game depending on the options, the level can be started at the top right of the game, pauses, the user interface can see its progress and, therefore, the game screen is very clean, no key move control. Sight line to lock the player. suspension assistance can be viewed at any time, from unfamiliar players with the operation.The game is very easy to play, players in levels choose the role correctly, the way in which obstacles always stop players, and Jumping is the only way to get around these obstacles, even if it looks simple, but true. The Management Playera S requires a high level of challenge and because, in terms of restrictions, the player will never know what the face of the ground is, this significantly increases the opponent e s difficulty with the largest number of players. The key element that can be, of course, is the reactivity, experience, to break its limits, to play experience, it is also necessary to rely on it ofTen.Despite its name a bit misleading, Geometry Dash Light actually acts that it is no different from the game "Flying Bird" by Flappy Bird. Players only check the endless jumps through many obstacles like squares, rectangles, box boxes, triangles, circles. Very funny background music. Once reached Final will be completed the level and this time you will be redirected to a new game screen. However, if you encounter obstacles or you can't solve a particular puzzle, the players lose and having to start everything from Again.When unlock successes, you will find new colors and icons to customize the appearance of your box. In particular, once a certain distance is skipped, you will be given more missiles to improve your ability to the character. A point for players to keep in mind is that the Geometry Dash Lights emphasizes time and speed. If you choose the wrong time or skip too slowly, the dollars will be crushed by acute obstacles that descend from above. About Geometry Dash APK 2.111 Geometry Dash is an arcade game with simple and simple rules and interfaces.
