PlotMachines

- ✓  cops (film)
  - ✓  police officers throughout
  - ✓  constructed short film
  - national film registry
  - ✓  united states library
  - pork pie hat trapped
- not outline points
  - ✓  mentioned (partially) at least once
  - ✓  mentioned multiple times

The film is set in a united states library, located at an old-fashioned desk and surrounded by bookshelves. It consists of three stories with police officers throughout each story. There are two versions: one for each floor; the other for every room. The narrator (played by John Wayne) explains that he has constructed short films to help people who need them. These include "cops", "policemen", "robbers", "criminals", "murderers", "killers", "terrorists", "gangsters", "assassins", "revolutionaries", "anarchists", "bankers", "robbers", "murders", and "rapists".

They have erected a large statue of Napoleon, but when questioned why they did not capture him yet, they simply say that their boss wanted to make sure that his men would never find out where he hid the money. After hearing the news, they decide to go undercover and infiltrate the bank owned by the president of the state department. While infiltrating the vault, they discover that the robbery will take place over a long period of time. During the heist, the group discovers that the leader of the gang is actually a member of the national film registry, known only as the chief of security. The head of the operation is named Mr Hoover, and the rest of the team are called "cops".

The plan works perfectly until the thieves break into the museum using a concealed tunnel. They steal all the books and papers, leaving the prisoners free to escape. The prison guards chase after them, but the boys manage to hide themselves under desks and chairs before escaping. The boys return home to tell their parents about the incident. Their mother is shocked and angry, believing that her sons' actions led to the death penalty. She scolds them for running away without telling anyone. They explain that they just ran away because they could no longer stand living in fear.

Finally, the thief reveals herself as Mrs Robinson, the librarian of the united states library. She informs the heroes that she knows everything about them and even helped them escape. She wants to show them something; she shows them a picture of the famous hero, William Shakespeare, who died fighting the Nazis. The four friends wonder what happened to him. The policeman returns and takes the photo. The others realize that the policeman is none other than William Shakespeare himself. The policeman claims that he killed Shakespeare because he knew too much information about the Nazi regime. He leaves.

The film features a detailed description of the structure of the library, including its construction and layout. The illustrations are based upon actual events. The buildings featured in the picture depicted are modeled after those found in real life, such as Stonehenge, Atlantis, Mount Rushmore, the Great Pyramid, etc. The photographs depict the entire town of Granite, California, and the surrounding countryside. The map used in the documentary is described as having been taken from 1899 to 1947. The location of Granite is shown in the film.

These documents can be arranged quickly and the financing becomes simpler. These are model legal documents used by start-up companies and are available for free download from the Internet. No matter how bright the business idea, the future of a startup is quite unpredictable. With the rates of interest raised, the notes function as a regular commercial practice, with the exception of SAFE and BISS (which will be discussed in the following section). This is not offered to investors in later stage. These are issued to companies in the form of practicitions that will eventually become capital. The next page will open that it shows all the convertible notes of your company. Make sure you consider the effect of taxes on capital gains on the purchase. Exercise an option of convertibility.
